Application & Program Description, 2016-17

Students selected to serve as Tulsa Community College Provost Scholars and Student Ambassadors will distinguish themselves within the College and community through their personal and collective commitment to excellence in student leadership, student service, and student scholarship.

The Provost Leadership Award is a one-year scholarship available to students entering college for the first time, transferring, or continuing their college education. The award pays 100% of tuition for up to eighteen (18) semester credit hours each fall and spring semester. The award does not apply to fees. Award recipients may be asked to participate in various collegiate activities. Provost Leadership Award recipients are required to enroll in a minimum of six (6) semester credit hours for both the fall and spring semesters.

Provost Scholar and Student Ambassador Responsibilities include:
• Maintaining high standards of academic excellence.
• Leadership in TCC student organizations or community service.
• Serving the College in activities such as recruitment, College committees, special events, and/or orientation.
• Award recipients are strongly encouraged to participate in student leadership development programs offered by the College.
