2. Overview of Committee Meeting Topics

- Discussed new regulations that could affect federal direct loans and benefit micro credentials. TCC received more than 20,000 FAFSA applications for 2025-2026.
- Discussed School of Health Sciences outreach programs, such as the Dental Hygiene Clinic and the Physical Therapy Assistant Clinic, which helps students learn and Tulsa citizens can access.

3. Metric Moment

Presented by Dr. Eunice Tarver, Vice President of Student Success and Chief Student Affairs Officer, and Norma Navarro-Castellanos, Assistant Vice President of Financial Aid and Scholarships

Dr. Tarver introduced Navarro-Castellanos who has done transformational work in TCC's financial aid department. Ms. Navarro-Castellanos spoke about changes in financial aid and Pell Grant data. Data were typically available at the end of an academic year but are now available at the beginning due the changes.

- In Oklahoma, it became a requirement for high school students to complete the FAFSA, which allowed TCC to receive the applications at the beginning as students are being admitted and completing orientation. The department was then able to focus on assisting students with next steps.
- A substantial number of students received Pell for Fall 2025 semester.
- Opportunity to offer federal Pell Grant for micro credential programs is expected in Fall 2026 regardless of whether the program is less than a full semester. The program must be portable and stackable.

4. Student Success Update

Presented by Ericka Williams

Student Ericka Williams spoke about how financial aid has supported her college journey. Ms. Williams is a second-year sophomore studying computer information systems and is also a member of the student government. Financial aid was vital because she did not have available resources. Financial aid allowed her to focus on her studies, the effort and the time necessary to succeed. TCC employees assisted her with her financial aid application and admissions application when she was in high school.

1. TCCPD Law Enforcement Accreditation Update

Introduction by Chief Melvin Murdock

Mr. Kevin McCullough, Law Enforcement Program Specialist, formally presented the Oklahoma Law Enforcement Accreditation Commission's accreditation credential to the Tulsa Community College Police Department. Mr. McCullough serves on the executive board of the Oklahoma Association of Chiefs of Police.

The accreditation program provides Oklahoma law enforcement agencies with an avenue to demonstrate that they meet commonly accepted standards and best practices for efficient and effective operations. Law enforcement executives who seek accreditation have written policy and procedures evaluated and their complete operations evaluated by subject matter experts. The program is endorsed by the Council of Law Enforcement Education and Training (CLEET) and several other groups.

Mr. McCulloch presented leadership certificates to Chief Murdock and to David Pillars, TCC's accreditation manager, and the award of accreditation to the entire Tulsa Community College Police Department. Less than five percent of Oklahoma law enforcement agencies have achieved this accreditation.

2. Aspen Institute Assignment

Presented by President Goodson and Dr. Angela Sivadon, Sr. Vice President and Chief Academic Officer

The Executive Committee traveled to Washington D.C. Aspen Institute to collaborate with other college boards and trustees. There are 10 colleges in the cohort. The logic model project is one requirement of the program.

- Individual degree plans will place all degree-seeking students on an individualized degree plan. The expectation is that students will persist each semester and finish their degree/credential by the expected timeline resulting in the increased likelihood of graduating or transferring compared to those without a plan.

- First-year touchpoints will map out required first-year touchpoints connected to advising, financial aid, and career services. Students will receive information when it's most relevant while building a stronger community resulting in a reduction in isolation and an increase in student persistence.
- Required career exploration requires all Tulsa Achieves students to complete seven contact hours (of the 40 hours community service required) of structured career exploration, such as internships, career assessments, mock interviews, and resume workshops. Students will have more clarity early on and make more informed decisions before investing in semesters of coursework. The outcome will be a reduction in wasted credits and delays in degree completion. This goal fits into the Unlocking Opportunity work.
- Annual student-centered schedules will produce an annual student-centered schedule based on individualized academic plans allowing students to be able to follow an established pathway by relying on courses being offered in a timely manner and in sequence. Students are expected to persist at higher rates with support to complete quicker.
- A contextualized first-year experience course would better connect to a desired career and understanding of employment opportunities. It will help position students with better post-graduation outcomes. The course is required for Tulsa Achieves students and is focused on careers, financial literacy, and academic strategies such as note-taking and time management. The College was awarded a post-secondary success federal grant for a research study that will help identify success of contextualized courses.

3. National Governor's Association Delegation to Study Swiss Apprenticeships

President Goodson gave an update on her trip with the Governor Stitt's delegation to study the Swiss apprenticeship system. The group met with national leaders, major employers, and apprentices to see how Switzerland blends classroom learning with paid, hands-on training.

Students are in their apprenticeship two days a week and on coursework three days a week. Apprenticeships start at age 15. The hope for the company is that the individual will become a long-term or lifetime employee.

The Swiss Vocational Education and Training model (VET) provides paid apprenticeships paired with vocational coursework. Pathways are supported by employers, educators, and the government. About two thirds of Swiss teens are in the program. About a third of Swiss companies offer the apprenticeships.

The program is a strong coordination between the government, the corporation, and the student. There are national standards for each discipline and sector of business. Employer partnerships are essential.

4. Overview of President's Highlights

Ms. Kane highlighted the following taken from the President's Highlights.

- TCC Students Honor Alumnus, Actor Wes Studi
- Reentry Simulation Brings Awareness to Barriers Faced After Incarceration

2. President's Comments

Curriculum Informational Items 2025-2026

November 2025 Meeting

Computer Information Systems, AS	Modify Program	Added a course to the controlled electives needed for transfer. Program remains at 60-63 hours.
Data Analytics, AS	New Program	New Program. The Data Analytics degree program equips students with the key principles for leveraging data in a variety of contexts, including academic research, business analysis, and formal policy evaluation. This program develops a student's skillset to develop good questions, evaluate the value of data sets, understand the messages data can tell, and communicate insights to other people. The data analytics degree program prepares students for careers in a variety of different fields, such as data science, data analyst, business intelligence analyst, and public policy analyst. The degree will be 60 credit hours.
Data Analytics, CER	New Program	New Certificate. A recent employment snapshot provided by the Workforce Development office showed 740 active job advertisements in the Tulsa area. The majority (84.7%) of individuals working in Data Analytics attained at least a bachelor's degree, but around 10% completed less than a two-year degree. The average salary for a job associated with a general Data Analytics program is $93,300. Data analysis, even at the junior level, is thus an increasingly in-demand position. TCC can therefore serve our students and community with providing on-ramps into those careers. Data Scientist is on the critical occupations list. The certificate will be 24 hours.
Engineering Technology, AS	Modify Program	Added two courses to elective section to help with transfer options. Credit hours remain the same.
Engineering Technology, AutoCAD Professional Certificate	Modify Program	The drafting courses have a Math prerequisite. Math was added to the certificate to make students aware of the certificate requirements. The certificate will move from 16 to 20-22 credit hours.
World Languages AA, Japanese Option	Modify Program	Changed the list of controlled electives to include three hours of liberal arts and science electives. Credit hours remain the same.
World Languages Certificate, Spanish Interpreting Skills Option	Suspend Program	Suspending the program because of limited enrollments and graduates, and this is a better fit for a micro credential.
Aviation Sciences Technology, Commercial Pilot Certificate	Modify Program	Removed AVST 2283 from the certificate. Certificate will change from 24 to 21 credit hours.
Air Traffic Control AAS	Modify Program	Deleted AVST 2542 and AVST 2552 because the courses are not needed for the program. Also added the requirement that all AVST courses must be completed with a "C" or better.
Child Development AS, Child Development	Modify Program	Changed the program title to Child Development AS. This simplifies the title.
Audio Engineering Certificate	Modify Program	The changes proposed to the Audio Engineering Certificate will reduce the total credits required of students from 27 to 24 . They will bring the certificate into alignment with the new Music Production AAS degree. They will also provide more focus and clarity to the program for students pursuing work as professional audio engineers.
Music, AA	Modify Program	Two controlled electives listed changed from 3 credit hours to 2 credit hours as a result the courses were updated in the degree requirements. The degree will remain at 60 credit hours.

Music Production, AAS	New Program	Background: The Certificate in Audio Engineering was successfully launched this fall 2024 with the intention of creating an additional optional pathway for audio engineering students to complete their associate degree the following year, fall 2025. This program is designed to equip students with the fundamental knowledge and skills to work as an audio engineer. It will prepare them to work in the fields of music production, music recording and live sound for concerts and other public events. It will enable them to transfer to a four-year college or university to pursue a baccalaureate degree in music production.
World Languages Certificate, French Option	Modify Program	Decreased the number of credit hours and streamlining the Certificate will allow students to complete their degree in a timely manner. It will also be more closely embedded into the French AA. Students pursuing a French AA will be able to earn a French Certificate at the same time. Certificate will change from 25 credit hours to 18 credit hours.
World Languages Certificate, Spanish Option	Modify Program	Decreased the number of credit hours and streamlining the Certificate will allow students to complete their degree in a timely manner. It will also be more closely embedded into the Spanish AA. Students will be able to get their Spanish AA and Spanish Certificate by completing 18 hours of Spanish courses. Certificate will change from 21 credit hours to 18 credit hours .
World Languages Certificate, Spanish Translating Skills Option	Modify Program	Changed the name of the program to World Languages Certificate, Spanish Language Services Certificate. This program is being modified to provide the option of interpreting and translating as a part of one certificate not two. The certificate will for from 18 to 21 hours.
Veterinary Technology	Modify Program	Changed General Education: total hours 19 (from 23) as follows: deleted MATH and CHEM requirement and added medical terminology Most VETT courses will be blended, with asynchronous lectures and in-person laboratories. Blended lectures allow flexibility in the student's schedule for work and for General Education coursework. In-person laboratories sustain the important hands-on, experiential opportunities for students to learn in a safe environment. This curriculum change decreases the total Program / Degree hours to 60 credit hours (from 70). It provides a faster time to start the Program (reduced prerequisites) and a faster time to graduation. This reduces time and financial barriers for students seeking a degree.
UAV Maintenance Technology Certificate	New Program	The purpose of the UAV Maintenance Technology Certificate at Tulsa Community College is to equip students with foundational technical skills needed for entry-level roles that support the region's rapidly expanding drone and autonomous systems industry. As Tulsa invests in becoming the "Drone Capital of the World," regional employers increasingly seek workers who understand UAV systems, fabrication, robotics, and safety — capabilities directly targeted by this certificate. The certificate is 17 credit hours.
