

Community Partner Collaboration Form

The Tulsa Community College Financial Literacy Program is committed to empowering individuals and families by providing holistic financial education and counseling. Rooted in the principles of financial wellness, we inspire and motivate clients to achieve economic well-being by addressing the intricate relationships between values, attitudes, emotions, and financial behaviors.

Through education, collaboration, and innovative programming, we aim to resolve financial challenges, achieve goals, and foster lifelong financial resilience. Our mission aligns with TCC's core values of empowering students, enriching communities, and transforming lives through accessible, equitable, and inclusive education.
