6.1 The Common Book Program

Presented by Cindy Shanks, Dean of Engaged Learning; Dr. Lori Coggins, Assistant Professor/Coordinator of Engaged Learning; and Brian Glory, Student

Discussion about the Common Book Program. The program is a high-impact practice that allows students, instructors, and staff to build community around a common reading to deepen critical thinking capacities, foster a sense of connection to the institution and to one another, improve understanding of civic responsibilities, and raise awareness of the humanities' civic importance. This year's common book is Phil Klay's Redeployment, which is a series of short stories focused on war experiences. The TCC Common Book and the Public Good-Reads Program has been made possible in part by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities: Exploring the Human Endeavor.
